

Chair fall

Scenario Overview:

Upon arrival on scene first aid personnel find a victim lying on the ground face up with a head wound, the victim is semi-conscious and moaning. within the vicinity of the victim there is an overturned chair and a pile of books and paper strewn about the floor.

Difficulty:

First Aider Easy

How the scenario should progress:

First aid personnel should call 911, conduct a primary survey to evaluate the patient to include checking for sprains or bone breaks. Dress the head wound and keep the patient talking as much as possible,

Actor Tips:

Moan loudly when they first aid personnel begin their primary survey. act like your out of it, (semi conscious)

Patient 1:

Name: unknown Age: 25 Sex: Male

Medication:

none

Allergies:

none

Past medical/family/social history:

not known

Findings on examination:

Head wound, possible broken arm, patient is moaning in pain

Possible treatment from first aiders:

Treat the head wound with a bandage and isolate the break, work to communicate and calm the patient

No Observations Given