

Head Injury and unconscious

Scenario Overview:

You are at your workplace and someone falls down a step and hit their head and it starts bleed, as it is bleeding they fall unconscious. The casualty is known to fainting.

Difficulty:

First Aider Easy

How the scenario should progress:

The first aider will apply pressure to the wound and also put the casualty into the recovery position.

Actor Tips:

Patient 1:

Name: Daniel Paull Age: 23 Sex: Male

Medication:

None

Allergies:

None

Past medical/family/social history:

Known to fainting

Findings on examination:

Patient has a bleed from the head and falls unconscious.

Possible treatment from first aiders:

Apply pressure to the wound and to put the casualty into the recovery position.

Time after start:	0 mins	2 mins
Response:	None	Yes
Airway:	Yes	Yes
Breathing?	Yes	Yes
Pain Score:	(unknown)	5